

Supporting Future Volunteers: Diehl Metall Donates €4,000 to Röthenbach Youth Fire Brigade

Röthenbach a. d. Pegnitz, September 2026 – Diehl Metall is supporting the Röthenbach Youth Fire Brigade with a donation of €4,000. The funds were raised during the Family Day at the company's Röthenbach site and will be used to support the brigade's youth development activities.

From left to right: Teresa Macke (Diehl Metall), Klaus Hacker (Mayor of the City of Röthenbach), Representatives of the Röthenbach Youth Fire Brigade, Martin Knorr (Commander of the Volunteer Fire Brigade Röthenbach), Arnulf Gössl (Diehl Metall Works Fire Brigade), Michael Nitz (Diehl Metall).

The donation amount consists of proceeds generated during the event, along with additional voluntary contributions from employees. Diehl Metall increased the collected funds to a total donation of €4,000.

Through this contribution, the company aims to support the important work of the Youth Fire Brigade. Youth programs play a vital role in educating and developing young people while providing the foundation for the future of volunteer firefighting services in the region.

Diehl Metall and the Volunteer Fire Brigade of Röthenbach have maintained a close relationship for many years. This collaboration is built on mutual trust and a strong connection to the local community. Supporting the Youth Fire Brigade is therefore an investment in the future of volunteer engagement and community service.

Martin Knorr, Commander and Chairman of the Volunteer Fire Brigade of Röthenbach, expressed his appreciation:

"On behalf of the Röthenbach Youth Fire Brigade, we would like to sincerely thank everyone for this generous donation, which was raised during your Family Day 2026. Your support is a valuable recognition of our youth work and helps us further strengthen the training and community spirit of our young members. We greatly appreciate both your financial contribution and your commitment to supporting the Volunteer Fire Brigade of Röthenbach a. d. Pegnitz."

Through this commitment, Diehl Metall underlines its close ties to the region and its determination to sustainably support local initiatives and volunteer-based organizations.

Contact Press Relations:

Diehl Metall Stiftung & Co. KG

Michael Nitz

Head of Marketing & Communication

Phone +49 911 5704-180

E-Mail: michael.nitz@diehl.com

www.diehl.com/metall

About Diehl Metall:

Diehl Metall is a Corporate Division of the Diehl Group founded in 1902 (sales: 5.4 billion euros, employees: 19,449 in 2025) and has its headquarters in Röthenbach a.d. Pegnitz near Nuremberg. The company offers a broad spectrum of innovative products and technologies in the area of metal processing. In a global production network with locations in Europe, Asia, South America and the US, Diehl Metall develops application-oriented solutions for international customers.

The company assumes responsibility in the area of climate and resource protection, and places great value on recyclable alloys and composite materials. To fulfil this responsibility, Diehl Metall relies on technically optimized production processes and directs its innovation activities toward future trends.